SUMMARY

This pamphlet summarizes Lanark County's policy with respect to Development Charges. The information contained herein is intended only as a guide. Applicants should review By-law No. 2021-42 and consult with the County Finance Department to determine the applicable charges that may apply to specific development proposals.

The Development Charge By-law is available for inspection in the Finance Department and the Clerk's Office, Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and on the County's website at www.lanarkcounty.ca

PURPOSE OF DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

The general purpose for which the County imposes development charges is to establish a viable capital funding source to meet the County's financial requirements.

The Council of the County of Lanark passed uniform By-law No. 2021-42 on December 8, 2021 under subsection 2(1) of the Development Charges Act, .

Development Charge Rules

The main rules for determining if a development charge is payable in a particular case, and for determining the amount of the charge, are as follows:

1. The development charges shall be calculated and be payable on the date the first building permit is issued.
2. The following uses are wholly exempt from development charges under the By-law:
 - A place of worship and land used in connection with;
 - Lands owned by and used for purposes of a Municipality, local board thereof, a board of education;
 - An interior alteration to an existing building or structure which does not change or intensify the use of the land;
 - The enlargement of an existing residential dwelling unit, or the creation of one or two additional units where specific conditions are met;
 - Industrial Buildings;
 - Hospitals
 - Non-residential farm buildings;
 - A reduction in development charges under the By-law is allowed in the case of a demolition or redevelopment of a residential, non-residential, or mixed use building or structure, provided that the building or structure was occupied, and a building permit for the redevelopment of the land was issued within five years of the issuance of the demolition permit.
3. In addition to 2., any other development that has been exempt by a local tier Development Charges By-law, will be exempt from Lanark County's Development Charges.
